

3, 2, 1.....Edit!

Great writers are not born, they are made. Through practice and usable feedback, each and every student can improve on their writing. Simple and manageable steps are a great way to begin!

Thank you for being my peer editor for my writing assignment named

_____.

3 Spelling, grammar, or punctuation corrections I recommend include;

--	--	--

2 Word changes I think would improve your writing include;

_____ in place of _____

_____ in place of _____

1 Sentence that could be re-arranged and improved is;

Your editor on this assignment was _____.

Here's an easy and effective way to give feedback. A star is something that you liked, a step is something that could make it even better, and a think is something that you connected to, have a question about, visualized, or inferred.

